This document highlights specific omissions, corrections and amendments regarding the published documentation relating to the above consultation. These have been identified after the documentation has been published so cannot be retrospectively included.

The document version number and date can be found at the top of this document to help establish the most recent omissions, corrections and amendments that have been made.

- 1) Correction : Consultation Document, page 7, paragraph 17
The period of time Scottish Ministers have to decide whether to call in a proposal is incorrectly stated as six weeks. The correct length of time is eight weeks.

- 2) Correction : Consultation Document, page 7, paragraph 18
It is incorrectly stated that:
“...if the Scottish Ministers call-in the proposal, they may refuse to consent to the proposal; grant their consent to the proposal subject to conditions or grant their consent to the proposal unconditionally.”

The correct procedure is as follows:

“If the Scottish Ministers decide to call in a closure proposal, it is then referred to the Convener of the School Closure Review Panels who has a period of seven days after a call in notice is issued to constitute a School Closure Review Panel.

The Panel may decide to refuse consent to the proposal, refuse consent and remit it to the education authority for a fresh decision or grant consent to the proposal, either subject to conditions, or unconditionally. The Panel must notify the education authority of its decision within eight weeks from when the Panel was constituted or within 16 weeks if the Panel has issued a notice to the education authority that a decision has been delayed.”

The original proposal document which contained these corrections has been amended and uploaded to the Consultation Hub.
