

East Lothian Autism Strategy - Consultation Questionnaire

You should read the Draft East Lothian Autism Strategy before completing this questionnaire. You can download a copy of the Strategy from the East Lothian Consultation Hub www.eastlothianconsultations.co.uk or request a paper copy by emailing elp@eastlothian.gov.uk or phoning 01620 827755

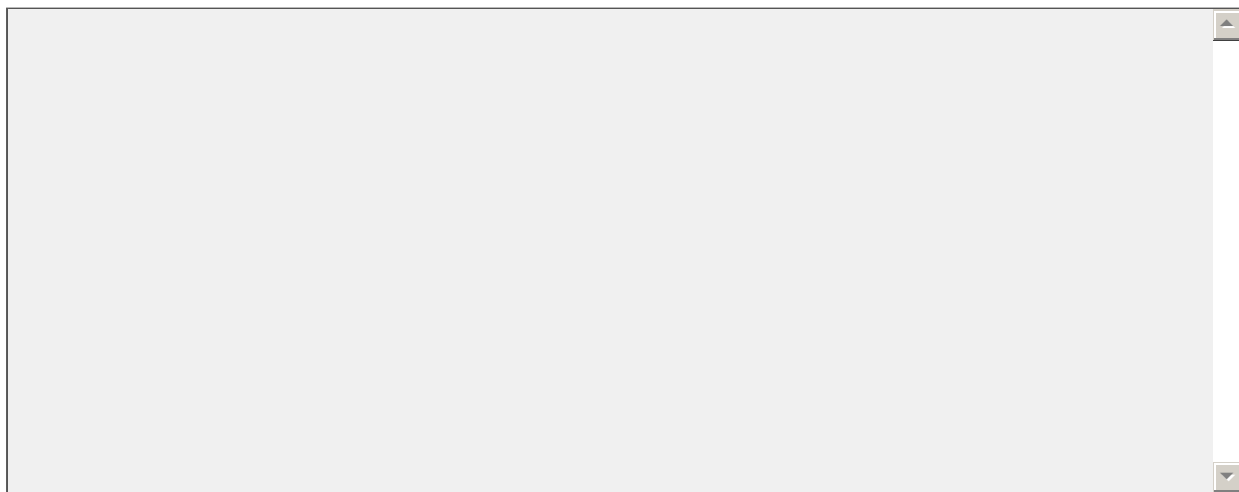

1. Do you think the Draft East Lothian Autism Strategy addresses the issues listed below?

	Yes	Mostly	Only Partly	No
Providing appropriate support and services for young people and adults with ASD diagnosis	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Developing advocacy, befriending and mentoring services for young people and adults with ASD	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Providing parents, carers and families with accurate, timely information about ASD services and supports	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Helping young people to have a positive experience of successful transition into adult life (and into adult services where appropriate)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Providing supported living options to young people and adults with ASD	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Developing proposals for a model of planned respite for high functioning ASD young adults and adults, offering opportunities to develop social and life skills and promoting independence	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Ensuring that service providers and their staff have the appropriate knowledge and skills to work effectively with service users with ASD	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Providing and promoting co-ordinated employment services to provide increased local employment opportunities and access to supported employment opportunities enabling young adults and adults with ASD to be economically active	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Ensuring that the East Lothian populations,	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

East Lothian Autism Strategy - Consultation Questionnaire

communities and staff delivering services are autism aware and respond positively to service users
with ASD

Please give details of any specific gaps you feel need to be addressed in relation to these issues

East Lothian Autism Strategy - Consultation Questionnaire

2. Please use this box to give details of anything else you feel the Draft Strategy does not adequately cover

3. Is there anything else you would like to tell us?

4. If you would like us to contact you in relation to a specific issue you have raised in this questionnaire please provide your email address or a phone number in the box below (NOTE only provide this if you want us to contact you)